GOALS OF THE CÉILÍ CLUB

The Pittsburgh Céilí Club is a non-profit organization that promotes traditional forms of Irish folk dancing and music. Céilídh (dances) are held on the first Saturday of each month (except for summer).

- ♣ To contribute to, to participate in and to promote various aspects of Irish culture (in particular, traditional forms of Irish dancing) and to preserve its social traditions and heritage.
- ♣ To provide a venue for Irish and American-Irish to share, appreciate and promote Irish culture.
- ♣ To cooperate with other organizations that desire to further the objectives of the Ceili Club.
- ♣ To uphold and remain a patriotic, non-sectarian, non-discriminatory, independent organization.

BENEFITS

As a member of the Pittsburgh Céilí Club you will be entitled to all of the privileges of the Club, including:

- ♣ Annual picnic;
- ♣ Quarterly newsletter "Ceilier";
